

ASIA-RELATED AWARDS

(as of December 2006)

1. Makino, S., Chan, C.M., Isobe, T., Beamish, P.W., 2006, "Intended and Unintended Termination of International Joint Ventures", Best Paper Award, Asia Academy of Management Conference.
2. Tang, J., Beamish, P.W., 2006, "Which Ties Matter When? The Strategic Impact of Network Linkages on Foreign Subsidiary Survival", Best Paper Award, International Management Division, Academy of Management Conference.
3. Arregle, J.L., Hebert, L., Beamish, P.W., 2006, "Assessing the Advantages of Multilevel Methods for Entry Mode Research", Best Paper Award, Academy of International Business Conference.
4. Chung, C., Beamish, P.W., 2004, "Multinational Linkages During Times of Economic Crisis versus Stability", Best Paper Award, International Business Division, Administrative Sciences Association of Canada.
5. Beamish, P.W., Goerzen, A., 2002, "Geographic Scope and Multinational Enterprise Performance", Best Paper Award, Academy of International Business Conference.
6. Makino, S., Delios, A., 2002, "Bunched Foreign Market Entry: Competition and Imitation Among Japanese Firms, 1980-1998", Haynes Prize for Best Paper, Academy of International Business Conference. Both authors are Ivey Ph.D. graduates.
7. Delios, A., Beamish, P.W., 2002, "Joint Venture Performance Revisited: Japanese Foreign Subsidiaries Worldwide", Best Paper Award, International Business Division, Administrative Sciences Association of Canada.
8. Goerzen, A., 2002, "Network Diversity and Multinational Enterprise Performance", Udayan Rege Best Dissertation Award, Competition held by and presented at Administrative Sciences Association of Canada. Thesis completed at Ivey.
9. Chen, Y., (PhD Candidate), 2002, "Performance Measurement Systems in Joint Ventures: A Conceptual Model", Best Student Paper, International Business Division, Administrative Sciences Association of Canada.