

FACULTY POSITIONS IN THE PRE-BUSINESS PROGRAM

The Ivey Business School is recognized worldwide for the quality of its management education and research. The School's major activities include: a highly regarded MBA program and undergraduate program; a well established doctoral program active in most major areas of management; as well as, an expanding portfolio of programs for executives, including an Executive MBA delivered in Canada and Hong Kong. The School is internationally oriented in terms of curricula, research, faculty, and student exchanges.

The Ivey Business School at Western University seeks candidates for Limited Term appointments at the rank of Lecturer in the Pre-Business Program. The start date of these appointments is September 1, 2016. Successful candidates will be required to attend paid training, on a full-time basis in late April, May and June, 2016. The limited term appointments begin in September 2016 and end in early May 2018. Applicants must have a four-year honours (HBA) degree in commerce/business administration or an MBA degree. Experience and familiarity with the case method is required.

Successful candidates will be required to teach up to three sections of Business 1220E, an introductory Business course similar to Business 1220 (yet to be named), or Business 2257 during the winter and/or summer academic sessions in each of their two years, using the case method of instruction. These courses are developed and taught by the Ivey Business School and available to students across the University. Business 2257 is a required course for Ivey's selective undergraduate (HBA) program. Successful candidates are expected to write a minimum of two cases with comprehensive teaching notes for their respective courses. Successful candidates are responsible for all activities related to teaching the course curriculum development, writing and setting of exams, managing competitions, training new Lecturers, managing and recruiting teaching assistants and providing academic guidance to students. Some travel is required in the second year of the appointment. Vacation entitlements must be taken in July and August 2017.

All positions are subject to budget approval. Applicants must have fluent written and oral communication skills in English. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, under Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. The Ivey Business School and Western University - Canada are committed to employment equity and welcome applications from all qualified women and men, including visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities.

Please include in your submission an application letter with resume; a transcript of your grades received in your last three full years at university; a detailed description of your experience with the case method.

Submission deadline is Friday, September 18, 2015. Applicants are encouraged to apply as early as possible to facultypositions@ivey.ca. Please ensure that the form available at <http://www.uwo.ca/facultyrelations/faculty/Application-FullTime-Faculty-Position-Form.pdf> is completed and included in your application submission.
