Course Enrollment

- Area of concentration: Accounting, Economics, Finance, Management, Information Systems, Marketing and Strategy.
- List of courses offered by Faculty of Business and Economics in academic year 2015-16 (for reference only, updated version will be available one month before the semester starts):
<http://www.fbe.hku.hk/course/undergraduate>
- Faculty's timetable in academic year 2015-16 (for reference only, schedule of 2016-17 will be available one month before the semester starts): :
<http://www.fbe.hku.hk/academic-programmes/undergraduate/timetable-and-calendar>
- Students are also permitted to take courses offered by other Faculties, as long as they meet the pre-requisite(s) and the class still has vacancies. Course information and timetable are available on the website of respective faculties/departments.
- Recommended Course load for exchange students: 30 credits/semester (Min.: 6 credits, Max.: 30 credits)
- Credit System: 6 credits per course
- Average Number of courses HKU students enrolled in for each semester: 5 courses

Notes:

*Exchange students must take at least 50% of the courses (in terms of credits) at the Faculty of Business and Economics, i.e., courses offered by the School of Business or the School of Economics and Finance (FBE courses)

*Exchange students may choose to take credit-bearing Chinese language courses offered by the School of Chinese. Credits taken would not be counted in the course enrolment requirement, i.e., students may take the Chinese language courses in addition to the maximum 30 credits rule. Course information is available at <http://www.chinese.hku.hk/main/undergraduate/chinese-courses-for-international-undergraduate-students/>

*Exchange students are required to indicate the courses they wish to take in their application for admissions, preferably in priority order. Course selection status of FBE courses will be confirmed by email or upon their registration at HKU before start of the semester. Students are only allowed to change their course selection within the official add/drop period which is normally scheduled for the first two weeks of each semester.

*Exchange students have to apply for the non-FBE courses during add/drop period on their own.

* Requests for changes before and after the add/drop period shall not be considered. Students should not drop out of the enrolled course(s) as HKU does not allow withdrawal during the semester. Courses will be graded as "Fail" in such cases.
