

MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The Richard Ivey School of Business seeks candidates for a probationary Assistant Professor position in the area of Management Information Systems. The position is available to begin in July 2012. The successful candidate will demonstrate a strong commitment to the practice of management in both research and teaching. The School supports high quality managerial research targeted at top academic journals in all management disciplines. While all strong candidates are encouraged to apply, those with a focus on strategic and/or organizational Information Systems research topics will be given special consideration. The ability and willingness to teach across a wide range of programs in either core courses or electives – i.e. undergraduate (HBA), MBA, EMBA and Ph.D. – is highly desirable.

Applicants for this appointment are expected to hold, or be nearing the completion of a doctorate degree in Information Systems or a related discipline. The successful candidate will demonstrate a strong commitment to excellence in research and teaching. Qualifications will include a demonstrated interest in, and capacity to conduct and publish research, and teach Information Systems courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Case teaching experience is desirable.

Limited Term and Visiting Appointments will also be considered for this appointment.

The Richard Ivey School of Business is Canada's premier business school and is recognized worldwide for the quality of its management education and research. The School's major activities include a highly regarded MBA program and undergraduate program; a well established doctoral program active in most major areas of management; as well as an expanding portfolio of programs for executives, including an expanding Executive MBA delivered in Canada and Hong Kong. The School is internationally oriented in terms of curricula, research, faculty, and student exchanges.

This position is subject to budget approval. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. The Richard Ivey School of Business and The University of Western Ontario are committed to employment equity and welcome applications from all qualified women and men, including visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities.

For information on all appointments and how to apply, please visit our website:
www.ivey.uwo.ca/faculty/Career_Opps.htm

The submission deadline is December 31, 2011, although applications will be accepted until the position has been filled. If available, please include detailed teaching evaluations with the application.