Global Leaders at HK Convocation

On October 13, 2000, Ivey hosted its first ever Convocation in Asia. The 23 graduates of Ivey's Hong Kong Executive MBA program, were honored by UWO President Dr. Paul Davenport and Ivey Dean Dr. Larry Tapp.

Joining families and friends of our graduates were many Hong Kong dignitaries including Dr.

Cheng Yu Tung, Chairman of New World Development, Dr. Li Ka Shing, Chairman, Cheung Kong Limited and Hutchison Whampoa Limited, and UWO alumna Dr. Margaret Chan, Director of Hong Kong's Health Department. Honorary Doctor of Laws (honoris causa) recipient Dr. William Shurniak addressed the convocation. Shurniak, one of Canada's preeminent international business leaders in Hong Kong delivered an engaging speech titled "Change and Continuing Education".

Résumé Brochure

"It is all about connecting the right people to the right jobs."

In view of the growing number of Asian students enrolled in our full-time MBA program in Canada, and the recognition of the demand of internationally trained managers for businesses in Asia, we have prepared the Asia Pacific Résumé Brochure profiling candidates of the graduating Class of 2001. We strongly believe these men and women present a unique pool of talent, and are ready to make an immediate contribution to your organization's success.

Send us an email at ami@ivey.uwo.ca if you would like to receive a print copy or download the brochure from: <http://www.ivey.uwo.ca/ami/Class2001.pdf>

Gift Opportunity – Corporate Investors' Program

The Asian Management Institute is a self-reliant, non-profit department. Our commitment in research and development of intellectual capital is dependent on grants and funding provided by investors to sustain its efforts.

To make a lasting impact on management education, to reach out to opinion leaders and the next generation of managers, and to gain access to the best MBA recruits from Canada's top business school, we offer the opportunity of a winning partnership.

The Corporate Investors' Program forges an important link between industry and business education. Ivey's initiative in Asia Pacific is a University-Industry partnership that works. We have shared values regarding quality, relevance and commitment.

Unspecified gifts or financial support designated towards special projects, professorships, publications, or scholarships will associate your corporation with Ivey in a long lasting tribute. Join us in our mission to develop outstanding business leaders who think globally, act strategically, and contribute to the societies in which they operate.

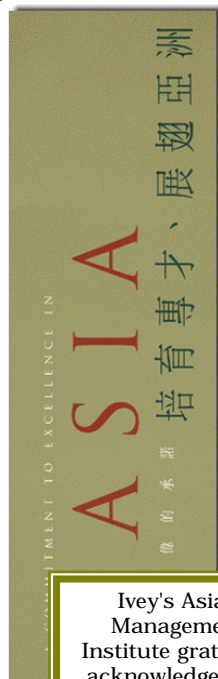

We appreciate your interest in Ivey and look forward to forming a mutually beneficial partnership.
