

AMBA PROGRAM

Antirequisite Courses

AMBA students may not enroll in MBA electives which are antirequisite to courses taken during their HBA years.

Contact MBA Program Services if you have questions about selecting appropriate electives.

MBA and HBA antirequisites depend on the length of time between HBA and MBA studies. Some MBA and HBA antirequisites include:

MBA Antirequisite	HBA
Influence Persuasion & High Impact Presenting	Advanced Presentation Skills & High Impact Presenting
Business Law	Business Law (3 and 4 digit numbers) MOS Business Law, ACS Business Law
Corporate Financial Reporting	Corporate Financial Reporting
Derivatives and Risk Management	Derivatives and Risk Management
Managing People for Exceptional Performance	Managing People for Exceptional Performance
Negotiations	Negotiations for Leaders
New Venture Creation	New Venture Creation (quarter course)
New Venture Creation	Creativity, Opportunity and Expertise (quarter course)
Operations Strategy	Operations Strategy (completed after 2011)
Portfolio Management	Managing Financial Assets
Portfolio Management	Portfolio Management
Value Investing	Value Investing

Some MBA and HBA courses which are NOT antirequisite to each other and may be taken in MBA if previously taken in HBA, include:

MBA – Not an Antirequisite	HBA
Entrepreneurial Finance	Entrepreneurial Finance
Global Strategy	Global Strategy
Portfolio Management	Investment Management