

FACULTY POSITIONS IN THE PRE-BUSINESS PROGRAM

The Ivey Business School is recognized worldwide for the quality of its management education and research. The School's major activities include: a highly regarded MBA program and undergraduate program; a well established doctoral program active in most major areas of management; as well as an expanding portfolio of programs for executives, including an Executive MBA delivered in Canada and Hong Kong. The School is internationally oriented in terms of curricula, research, faculty, and student exchanges.

The Ivey Business School at Western University seeks candidates for Limited Term appointments at the rank of Lecturer in the Pre-Business Program. The start date of these appointments is September 1, 2019. Successful candidates will be required to attend paid training on a full-time basis in late April, May and June, 2019. The Limited Term appointments begin in September 2019 and end in early May 2021. Applicants must have a four-year honours (HBA) degree in commerce/business administration, an MSc degree or an MBA degree. Experience and familiarity with the case method is required.

Successful candidates will be required to teach up to three sections of Business 1220E, Business 1299E, Business 2299E, or Business 2257 during the winter and/or summer academic sessions in each of their two years, using the case method of instruction. These courses are developed and taught by the Ivey Business School and available to students across the University. Business 1299E and Business 2299E are required courses for engineering students; as a result, those applicants who also have an engineering degree are encouraged to apply. Business 2257 is a required course for Ivey's selective undergraduate (HBA) program. Successful candidates are expected to write a minimum of two cases with comprehensive teaching notes for their respective courses. Successful candidates are responsible for all activities related to teaching the course, curriculum development, writing and setting of exams, managing competitions, training new Lecturers, managing and recruiting teaching assistants and provide academic guidance to students. Vacation entitlements must be taken during July and August 2020.
