

Faculty Position in Management Communications

The Ivey Business School at Western University seeks candidates for a Limited Term appointment in the area of Management Communications. Rank to be determined by qualifications and experience. The position is available to begin in July 2019, although alternate start dates may be arranged. This appointment may be for up to three years.

The Management Communications group is committed to world class scholarship and teaching. The teaching areas of the group include business writing, business presentations, interpersonal communications, crisis communications and reputation management. Links to practice through past work experience and/or consulting are an advantage. Responsibilities will include teaching courses on topics such as management communications at undergraduate and/or graduate levels.

Applicants are expected to have an MA or PhD (or be nearing completion of a PhD) in Business, Communications or a related field (Language, Literature, Journalism, Sociology or Psychology). The successful candidate will have demonstrated excellence in teaching in core undergraduate, MSc and/or MBA courses using a case discussion format. Experience teaching executives or writing business case studies also is valued.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Applicants are encouraged to submit materials (curriculum vitae, three letters of reference, teaching dossier) online to facultypositions@ivey.ca (See <http://www.ivey.uwo.ca/faculty/career-opportunities/> for other application details). Please ensure that the form available at <http://www.uwo.ca/facultyrelations/faculty/Application-FullTime-Faculty-Position-Form.pdf> is completed and included in your application submission. Review of applicants will commence on October 30, 2018, although applications will be considered until the position is filled.

The Ivey Business School is Canada's premier business school and is recognized globally for the quality of its management education and research. The School's major activities include: a highly regarded MBA program and HBA undergraduate program; a well-established doctoral program; a diverse portfolio of executive programs; and a growing MSc program with new streams being added. The School is internationally oriented in terms of curricula, research, faculty, and student exchanges, with campuses in London (Canada), Toronto and Hong Kong.

Positions are subject to budget approval. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English. The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.

In accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact facultypositions@ivey.ca.
