

FACULTY POSITIONS IN THE BUSINESS FOUNDATIONS PROGRAM

The Ivey Business School is Canada's premier business school and is recognized globally for the quality of its management education and research. The School's major activities include: a highly regarded MBA program and undergraduate program; a well-established doctoral program; a diverse portfolio of executive programs; and a growing MSc program with new streams being added. The School is internationally oriented in terms of curricula, research, faculty, and student exchanges, with campuses in London (Canada), Toronto and Hong Kong.

The Ivey Business School at Western University seeks candidates for Limited Term appointments at the rank of Lecturer in the Business Foundations Program. The Limited Term appointments begin in early May 2020 and end in early May 2022, and include a full-time training period in May and June 2020. Applicants must have a four-year honours (HBA) degree in commerce/business administration, an MSc degree or an MBA degree. Experience and familiarity with the case method is required.

Successful candidates will teach up to three sections of Business 1220E, Business 1299E, or Business 2257 during the winter and/or summer academic sessions in each of their two years, using the case method of instruction. These courses are developed and taught by the Ivey Business School and available to students across the University. Business 1299E is a required course for engineering students; as a result, those applicants who also have an engineering degree are encouraged to apply.

Successful candidates are expected to write a minimum of two cases with comprehensive teaching notes for their respective courses. Successful candidates are responsible for all activities related to teaching the course, curriculum development, writing and setting of exams, managing competitions, training new Lecturers, managing and recruiting teaching assistants and providing academic guidance to students. Successful candidates are also expected to perform service activities such as, but not limited to, teaching high school case classes and judging case competitions. Vacation entitlements must be taken during July and August 2021.

Please include in your submission an application letter with resume and a transcript of all your postsecondary grades received at university. Submission deadline is Monday, September 23, 2019. Applicants are encouraged to apply as early as possible to facultypositions@ivey.ca. Please ensure that the form available at <http://www.uwo.ca/facultyrelations/faculty/Application-FullTime-Faculty-Position-Form.pdf> is completed and included in your application submission.
